IRELAND.

Record of the Most Important of the Recent Events Culled From Exchanges.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians is getting to be a very numerous body at Ballytrain.

Dr. McHugh, of Emyvale, who was critically ill for several weeks, is fully restored to health.

There now appears to be sufficient information to hand to prove that this year's exodus from Ireland will fall far short of that of any past year's average.

Destructive fires have been occurring in the mountains of East Kerry, between Brosna, Knocknagoshel and Castleland.

In the country surrounding Dundalk the farmers are rejoicing in a very forward spring. Oats were nearly all sown and the planting of potatoes advanced a week before Easter.

The membership of the Hibernian division organized at Castleblanney is rapidly increasing and the influence of the order is being made manifest.

Arthur Mohan, a pronounced Nationalist, died recently at his home in Drumcargy. The deceased had passed the proverbial three-score and ten years.

The Munster-Connaught exhibition will be opened at Limerick on July 9, and it is expected that the display of articles manufactured in the two provinces will be very large.

The parishioners of Timoleague and Cloghagh are rejoicing over the princely gift of $10,000 from John B. Manning, of New York, towards the erecting a new church in Timoleague.

A memorial window has been recently put up in St. Patrick's church at Fermoy to the memory of Miss M. M. Magner, daughter of Thomas Magner, member of the local Urban Council.

The death occurred recently at Meigsavine, County Kerry, of Mrs. Maggie Barrett, at the advanced age of 101 years. She possessed her faculties up to the last and was never known to be unwell.

The Limerick Free Library Committee has decided that a knowledge of the first three books of O'Growney and of Irish history are necessary qualifications for any person in future employed by that committee.

Father Kavanaugh, O. F. M., the distinguished historian of '98, has been transferred from Wexford to Carrick-on-Suir. His kindly nature and love of country have endeared him to Irishmen everywhere.

Irish coal has not been introduced into Tullamore Union as yet, it would seem. In a letter received from the Secretary of the Arigna Mining Company he stated that he had never received any communication from the Clerk on the matter.

Thirteen persons who had taken part in an Orange parade at Donemane, County Tyrone, when revolver shots were fired and property injured, are charged with unlawful assembly. In the interest of the peace of the district they were discharged on giving bail to appear when called on for judgment.

INTEREST INCREASES.

The Big Military Carnival Will Have Many Attractive Features.

The military carnival and world's fair pike, one of the biggest shows of its kind ever held in this city, will open its doors in a blaze of glory at the new armory next Monday. This will be First Regiment day and the entire local militia will attend during the evening. The object of the show is to raise enough money to fit the new armory up in appropriate style and from present indications the show will be a great success.

In addition to the free shows which include the thrilling loop-the-gap by Prof. Myers on a bicycle; the high wire act by the Nichols family, known as the "human trolley"; the aerial flight of Mlle. Le Bonne; the comedy acrobatic turn by the Koehler trio, the dancing pavilion and the Japanese tea garden, there will be Heck's magnificent indoor

Some of the attractions that are out of the usual line of carnival shows are the Princess Lulu, the smallest mother in the world; Miss Cleve Gill, the Canadian giantess, who is eight feet one inch tall; Mlle. La Rene, the famous Parisian fire dancer; the Palace of Living Art, where shapely maids will pose in imitation of famous groups of statuary, and the mysterious novel "Le Auto Girl," one of the most puzzling personages ever exhibited in public.

Congressman Shirley will vote for the Barry monument.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

The Bobzien cigars smoked all right Tuesday night.

Still another new division of the order has been established in Boston.

In the town of Dansville, N. Y., eight candidates were initiated at the last meeting.

J. A. Kennedy has been elected President of the Jeffersonville division to succeed Robert Gleason, resigned.

On retiring from office President Gleason, of Jeffersonville, presented his successor with a handsome bird's-eye maple gavel.

Every division should now strive to have a large class for the next quarterly initiation. Division 2 will do the honors on an extensive scale.

Division 3 meets Monday night and all should attend. The Literary Committee will report the programme for the social session that will occur at the succeeding meeting.

West Duluth Hibernians have taken up the study of Gaelic and a class has been organized in the division. Irish history has also enlisted the attention of this same division.

Division 1 of Jeffersonville has accepted the resignation of President Robert Gleason, whose employment at Frankfort has necessitated his withdrawal from the office at least temporarily.

There should be a rousing attendance at the meeting of Division 2 next Friday night. President Ford, Will Meehan and John Keane have propositions to submit that will have bearing on the work of the division for the next three months.

New Albany Hibernians are preparing for a big meeting upon the occasion of the visit of National Director George J. Butler next month. Several Kentucky State officers and a number of prominent Louisville Hibernians will accompany him.

Interest in the dramatic club continues to grow. As much depends upon the success of the first performance, every Hibernian in the city should lend his aid toward bringing out a big audience to encourage the young Geraldines in their laudable undertaking.

The Hibernians are always first in good works. As soon as the news of the Galveston flood was flashed over the wires $5,000 was sent the sufferers, and the day following the destruction of San Francisco like action was taken by the National Board for the relief of the unfortunate of that city.

Next Wednesday night the Ladies' Auxiliary will transact business of the greatest importance, and for this reason Miss Mary Sheridan requests the presence of every member. Among the questions to be discussed will be the reception proposed for their friends and members of the four divisions.

Bobzien's Cubana Cigar, 5c. Best made.

MACAULEY'S.

It is said that the scenery which will be seen at Macauley's next week in "Coming Thro' the Rye" is on a scale of grandeur that has been equaled by few musical productions in recent seasons. The settings are massive and form a beautiful background for the gorgeously attired girls. The blending of colors and the beauty of the designs are revelations in stage pictures. The electrical effects are particularly striking, and present the most advanced ideas in stage lighting.

BUCKINGHAM.

Kernan and Pipe's High School Girls' musical extravaganza company present the two act comedy "Whirligiggle" at the Buckingham Theater next week. In the olio will be found Sol and Nat Fields, comedians; Billy Hart and Emma Weston, Hughes and Hazelton in their travesty, "Damon and Pythias;" the Flying Bananas and other good vaudeville turns.

The Princess Skating Rink closes tonight. During the month that it has been open the rink was well managed and enjoyed a very successful season.
